Timéo, also known as "Tim Sparking," the leader of the Sparking Killing Boys, is a 10-year-old electric guitarist/singer with electrifying energy. Passionate about Steve Vai, Joe Satriani, or Tim Henson, he sets the stage on fire with his band, the "SKB." This early virtuoso of metal-rock has been playing live since the age of 7 and dreams of making his mark on guitar history!

In 2025, he is a finalist in the show La France a un incroyable talent (M6, Paris) and wins the final of the Tour Music Fest Europe (San Marino). He has performed in Paris, London, and throughout Europe including a huge show for 16,000 people at the Accor Arena Paris Bercy (All Star Game, Paris) and some fantastic concerts in the Zeniths of France
